Dec. 6. 1879.

I send this in lieu of

Jehovah's Chosen Squaw

S. L. McLean

Some men are wise and some are otherwise.

Some have a natural taste for registering events this first remark above I heard Nathen Sharp lisp from his own mouth Now he has turned out to be otherwise this Book is interspersed with matter of nearly every kind without system or any kind of regularity therefore a complete jumble.

and some things stated which should not have been as nothing disrespectful should be registered against any one.

Cure for Corns —

Take a small slice of raw lean fresh beef about the thickness of a dollar and bind it on the corn do this three or four successive nights and the cure is said to be certain — try it —

Castile soap and lime of equal portions; made into a plaster is said to be a cure for felons on fingers —

John Chase of windell N H offers to cure fever — consumptions dropsy &c on insurance —

Diseases of refined life. page 364 N C F —

To the Lovers of good beer (in Scotland)

Put two quarts of Molasses into a keg with 18 gallons of cool water. boil 2 oz of spice 2 of ginger 2 of hops and one half pint of indian meal in 3 quarts of water about an hour, stir it into the keg while hot, add one pint of yeast, stop the keg nearly air tight and let it stand 24 hours, when it will be fit for use. expence in all 3 shillings

One of the principals

For a felon

Take the root of Sanick & make a strong decoction bathe the part effected in it as hot as can be borne until it becomes quite cool — then make a poltice of the liquor and wheat bran and apply to the part effected

Chalibeate good for the stomach, Rhew & comomile bitters; Tea cup of hot water with a tea spoon of salt is an other good thing for the stomach taken early in the morning

Indelible ink for marking on linen cloth &c. is made by dissolving one drachm of Lunar caustic and half an ounce of gum arabic, in half a pint of pure rain water.

Previous to using it, the cloth ~~should~~ to be marked should be wet with a preparatory liquor made by dissolving one drachm of salt of tartar in half a gill of rain water and thoroughly dried and ironed. — Amer adv

Cure for the yellow Joundice

Take clean ashes of pignut bark steep it in clean soft water over night; pour off the water, and to one gill of this water add venician soap about the size of a quails egg — And take from half a gill to a gill of this mixture. three mornings fasting. it will remove the joundice — and produce a good appetite in a very short time

Dialogue between the flesh and spirit.

F. There is a veleint invasion
By whom I'm much oppress
It dwells among the shakers.
There finds a place of rest
And who is this bold leader
That seeks my endless shame
Let him come forword quickly
And answer to his name

S. 'Tis I replies the spirit
Who do withstand your cause
I understand your nature
Your statutes and your laws
I come from heaven's fountain
With vengeance in my hand
I'm sent to crucify you and purge you from the land

F. But listen yet a little
And hear me plead my case
I'm in a poor condition
And drove from place to place
By your insinuation
I'm robbed of my joy
Or could I be avenged
I would your life destroy

S. In vain is all your threatnings
And all the pleas you make
For I am sure to conquer
When ere I undertake
I'm honest free and open
An enemy to lust
And hate your sordid nature
Because it is unjust

F. Ah your's too free an open
Exposing all my wrongs -
And bringing me to judgement
More than to you belongs -
But since my doom is fixed
My life a shortning span
I'll take my full of pleasure
And get it as I can
I want to be in private
Secreted from the throng
Lest I am apprehended
And taken up for wrong -
But your so free and open
And wont deceit embrace
That I can take no comfort
Unless you quit the place

F. When I'm among the Godly
I cant have my desire
For if I act my nature
They'll be like flames of fire
They'll tear me from their presence
And seal me down to hell -
And say I was ordained Forever there to dwell -

S. Well thats a righteous sentence
And all who keep the gift
When you appear to tempt them
They'll send you off a drift
You dont deserve an entrence
With in the house of God -
Your of an other nation
For in the land of nod -

s. But if you will afflict me
And all my chosen throng
You may expect to suffer
What ever comes along ——
Just keep a poopher distance
And from disturbing cease
Then I will cease to fight you And let you rest in peace

f. No!! no!! I mean to flatter
And sooth a little while
And see if I cant charm you
In some refined style
I've many Golden treasures
And all shall welcome be
Who will accept my offers
And take a part with me

f. Tho' you as yet may scorn me 9
And wear me up and down
I am in hopes to conquer
And gain a vast renown —
I fear not earth nor heaven
Nor hell's exequisite fire
My present self indulgence
Is all that I desire ——

s. Your pleasures proves but fuel
In setting up the score ——
To burn you up with torment
Forever ever more ——
But I am crowned with glory
And all that follow me
Shall share in loving comfort
Tho' all eternity ——

Q. Why did you chuse this narrow way which all mankind dispise?
A. It was to purge my soul from sin
And gain the heavenly Prize
Q Why could you find no other way that would have done as well
A Nay any other way but this Would lead me down to hell
Q Well tell me how you did begin
A To purge away your drops =
By hearing & confessing sin and Thinking of my crops.

If As to your living comfort
Of it I cannot share
I know not much about it
And neither do I care
You vow my final ruin
And all my force defy
But I'll not yield the conflict
'Until' the hour I die

Then let this be your sentence
Wo! Wo! unto your Lust
Let your infernal nature
Forever be accurst
The darts of frowning judgement
Shall stain your glorious fame
And seal your woful sentence
In hell from whence you come

The end — The end. (J. N. Young Londonderry

and taking up my cross

Q Was it before the son of man
You brought your deeds to light
A — That was the mortifying plan
And surely it was right

Q Well did you not keep something back
Or did you tell it all
A I told it all however black
I freely freed my mind

Q Do you expect to persevere
And every evil shun
A My daily cross I mean to bear
Until the work is done

Q Well is it your full intent
All damage to restore
A If any men I've wrong'd a cent
I'll freely pay him four

Q Well what is now the greatest foe
With which you mean to fight
A The cursed flesh is that you know
All faithful souls abhor

The end —— Elder Isreal

The believers of West Union departed from that place on tuesday evening the 20th March 1827.
And landed at cincinnati on wednesday 28th of March and arrived at union Village on friday the 30th of the same month. About 40 in number. 1827.

Taken from a letter of Seth Y Wells dated April 4th 1827 at sodus they sell 1400 acres at 100 dollors per acre 140.000 bought 1670 acres at 55 dollors 91.850 .. 90.000 300 acres bottom land 300 upland all improved 800 acres of forest—principly hickory & oak 200 acres of white pine.

We this week received a peper from pittsburgh dated July 15th 1843 containing accounts about a book published by believers in the East Entitled A Return of Departed Spirits. / the loss of the steem ship president is settled. (by revelation) When we first opened this volume says the New York morning Chronicle We thought it a blasphemous hoax, Got up to make money & ridicule the shaker sect. but on reading it carefully we find an intensity of belief an honesty of purpose and a fervor (though misdirected) spirit of Devotion pervading every page. (July 20th 1843.) Strange as this delusion is there is no doubt but that it is seriously entertained by the Shakers, And the record of it is therefore valuable as showing the extent of fanaticism Among that mild & honest meaning people. this book was published by a turn back from Watervliet New York so we have ascertained since.

Dispeptic and Acid state of the stomach.

Take of the finest hickory ashes, one quart, add of clean soot one teacupfull, and of boiling water one gallon. when cool decant for use. Dose half a wine glass full severdo times a day. Chapmans Lectures.

For Acidity of the stomach. Take salts of tartar. common chalk and magnesia equal parts of each— form the mass into common size pills. Take three or four when it becomes necessary. and it will naturalize the acid in the stomach.

Review of C Hamptons Book March 1837. He says in one place That a verry extensive memory is about the lowest order of intellect. — How he made this discovery & how he can prove this assertion I know not but I shall not contradict him yet I am not of his belief altogether In the next place he treats largely on that congenial feeling "Self love" and exerts himself with a good deal of philosophy to carry his point But he should know there is no general rule without exceptions.

All trials as they are called, all tribulation, all vexations and troubles of whatever nature they may be are only so many blessings calculated to teach us patience & fortitude and that too upon the most rational principles. in the next place by a lengthey labor of mind & not without a good degree of dexterity he strives to uphold the Idea that the fall of man produced all the maladies of both soul & body which he believes to be an incontestable fact — That the true cause of all the pain & misery of mind or body entailed upon the descendants of the first adam is to be found in their voluntary submission to the government of Evil" Charles Hampton commenced this book Dec 4th 1832. & continued until feb 10th 1834.

Dec 30th 1832. fine meeting — Joshua, Andrew & James all Skinner Come in with a hymn tune clear de Kitchen hymn new & lively —

What Bro Hampton means by the indication beware of a man or woman that scratches the head with one finger I know nothing of his omen. He also gives the paternity of Doctors many ignominious epithets and much of a reprimand for their study of nonsense &c &c—

He asked God to preserve him thro a perilous like concern of hoe jockying. the 20 year old creature tolled & whined religiously and would apparently talk forever & knit — Blues engendering weather or a low state of mind- time hangs heavy & blue devils about February 1st 1833 at the Math Lot. got up a printing press for hymns &c. 10th the heaviest meeting I ever felt since I have been on the ground for some reason I know. an achan in the camp I reckon—

Hense jockying proved fatal with Brother Hampton what a pity his constatution was not more adapted for hardships, altho his present undertaking is somewhat disagreeable, yet it may work patience Grissoms house or the old cabbins aught to be burnt up there has not one soul been kept on the ground that has inhabited that fleshden for 9 years and the Cabbins not much better- they aught to be released from further service I think C D Hampton

Some twenty years past I was a fool too and am yet — but in relation to some species of folly getting ready to say as Solomon did when he was worn out "all is vanity" mankind are all fools so ends the Chapter —

March 4th 1833

Admonished Augustus Tiberghien (as he requested my advice) to go to the world and be a good civil citizen of the natural world he said he was about to put out and had no conviction of wrong in the case, if he did not go now he would ultimately go.

Unfaithful and wicked creatures hang on at the fountain with apparent deathless energy in their souls they are opposed to God & the order of the gospel. with infidel & ungodly cunning they figure & claim a relation to the order by hanging on, while silently & artfully they poison the stream of life — Weekness is spread from the centre to the extremity & order is really trampled upon as an unholy thing — a libertine spirit is laying waste the beautiful fabric of social harmony that was growing up in the west. And if God in his mercy to souls yet in the world does not some how bring that spirit into its place, the whole head on earth will become weak & the heart faint. To support the order of God in the circumference with an ungodly example at the centre is almost impossible. suffering is necessary & things may be best as they are all things considered. but it requires no small exercise of philosophy to believe under heavy bearings. this testimy is undoubtedly correct, for these days were sadd trying times and of great affliction throughout the Body and all these things were not without a cause. April 1833.- 29th Set sail for hell Robert Patterson the renowned dondy of the North Lot memorable for his stupidity & pride, a consumate ass. May 1st 1833 severe drought for this time of yeor the clover withs. God save the honest and liberal the young from the snares of Satan and the deceptious influence of their passions, strengthen their judgment Some old Shaker deadly near 80 years in the gospel sold some cucumber and melon plants (in Lebanon) at 6¼ each in a little gourd, what deception Covetousness. a cursed niggerdly griping affliction that equals in its ungodly tendency Mary magdalenes seven devils united. Under the form & visage of economy and is often couched in the most surprising meenness. May 27th Calvin & Madison Babbitt Young things proving the world by inches— this lower world is full of trials & vexations &c—

The blues again. representations are in full chase one after another— invent immaginary resections out of whole cloth— every body blue as a whetstone.

June 1833.

19th Brother Mathew returned from North Union home & tired of being capsized — July 10th 1833. Elderess Lucy & Company start for North Union. Sept 20th What a judicious dowsing he gives Warren County Canon instead of a blessing a curse of stagnant water, along the route in brothels or shanties of hell begotten figure D M —

July 11th 1833 Philip Antes starts a journey to Pensylvenia on busines his fathers estate to settle —

Encouragement there is no lack of spiritual ministration as to temporal things — Franklin spoke the truth when he said God loved them that helped themselves. This day and time as a traveler in a dark world I cannot see but as thro a glass darkly — yet faith and first principles holds me steady — what spiritual energy is wanting but the absorbing question is temporal advancement —

Human nature is indeed every where the same compound of weakness & infirmity. man every where love dominion & ease & if the gospel can have fair play upon his soul & bring him into obedience to its precepts there is yet some hope — yea of this last word this reminds me of a maxim I read at school — Experience teaches a deer school & fools will learn in no other. D M —

Humiliating as the subject must be and is to human pride and even to female pride the lesson of subjection has to be learned. God never gave the supremacy to woman only in her own sphere, and where ever she attempts to stretch her ambition to the heights of absolute goverment over that part of creation to which she was originally formed subject. She over steps the modesty of nature and pieces herself thro with many sorrows — &c — in all her attempts to govern she should be met with kindness & calmness but candid and immoveable firmness that a second attempt be never thought of.

Feb 9th 1834. no public meeting to keep up a successful warfare against the blues so called by the Americans, and by plain matter of fact souls of every kindred tongue & people "Low spirits." This complaint being more actionally interpreted means neither more nor less than a state of inactivity, in which there is neither enough of pleasure or pain to keep the soul properly awake. what a state of stupidity no stimulous no excitement to produce action & health in the body — and yet this is the deplorable state of society in the West & in this (said to be) enlightened age — but I should not speak contemptable of the day of small things. more conder D M

How difficult or in fact impossible for any man to write with that clearness & intelligence and to express himself with that degree of perfection which in riper years cannot see his many defect — this alone might teach him his lack of knowledge and how ignorant he is of his best acquirements of both God & man — if man properly knew his weakness he would have but little to boast of except ignorance and that is but a poor ornament for human nature may otherwise a blemish much to be regretted ignorance is some thing like every thing in the way

Extracts taken from Laws serious call to a devout & holy life

To know whom we worship, to entertain proper notions of God is the first necessary principle of true religion

Reading is good hearing is good conversation & meditation are good. but then they are only good at times and occasions in a certain degree, and must be used and governed with such caution as we eat & drink and especially ourselves or they will bring forth in us the fruits of intemperance (19 page Be afraid of seeking or finding comfort in any thing but God alone.)

I have just been listening to a harangue on temporal matters of speculation & how astonishing it is to behold the contrasted views that are entertained of our trustees- their economy- management & proceedings throughout in many points (by some) is condemned & others justified, some say they sell of too extravagent a price - for honest creatures Yea and these verry ones too if they were not answered in all their wants would complain of the poor & mismonagement of trustees the better way to do busines would be to discover & correct our own defects- by this means we would be better prepared for a candid view of others & feel to give a more charitable construction at the same time bo[illegible] a spirit of prejudice which is right in the way to honesty & truth. Believers have as good a right to the market price of every article as any other creatures in this noisy world Yet they should be perfectly honest and exempt from fraud. deal fair & candidly & use no deception then the mouth of every caviling upstart would be Shut and then these little noisy creatures which make themselves busy about matters which little concern them, would have less to do and also less disposed to encumber their minds with the affairs of others for which they receive no profitable reward - VC —
